

The background is a textured, light-colored wall, possibly plaster or stucco, with a border of red bricks at the top and bottom. The bricks are arranged in a pattern, with some missing or broken, creating a rustic, aged appearance. The text is centered on the wall.

Enter Boldly Into Grace

Ephesians 3:7-12

Ephesians 3:7-12
Enter Boldly Into Grace

Life Lessons:

- 1) The closer we get to the Lord, the more we should be aware of the sin in our lives that was previously unnoticeable to us.
- 2) Whenever a child of God Judges, looks down on, speaks ugly of others in the family of God, it's not grace, it's the law of legalism, the law of the pharisees.

Ephesians 3:7-12
Enter Boldly Into Grace

Life Lessons:

- 3) Our ministry is not only for all men to hear the ministry of Christ, but to make all men see it through the workings of God in our own life.
- 4) God declares resoundingly “Come boldly to me”