

Buggy People are
Gems of the Heart

Philippians 1:7-11

Gems of the Heart

Philippians 1:7-11

Life Lesson

1) As Christians in America we are way too fast to complain and worry about things that believers in third world countries would consider to be a cake walk.

Gems of the Heart

Philippians 1:7-11

Life Lesson

- 2) Paul cared about the Philippians because he prayed for them.
- 3) First: Because God answers prayer they will change.
Second: You will begin to change.

Gems of the Heart

Philippians 1:7-11

Life Lesson

4) Pray for people that bug you, hold them up on the shoulders of intercession and you will find that they will become gems in your heart.

Gems of the Heart

Philippians 1:7-11

Life Lesson

5) How will our love grow? By “excellence approving”, a.k.a.
“approving things which are excellent”.

Gems of the Heart

Philippians 1:7-11

Life Lesson

6) Be very careful that you don't start chopping people – groups – other ministries, don't pick on them. Instead pick that which is helpful from them, as fruit, that can be used for your own growth.

Gems of the Heart

Philippians 1:7-11

Life Lesson

7) Chew the meat. Spit out the bones!